The fine Georgian parish church of St John in Knutsford has been reordered for hosting special events and is an impressive venue. Built 1741-44, it was described by Lord Torrington in 1790 as "in the Venetian ballroom stile" and served us well in that capacity last year.

We are delighted to have John as our musical anchor for the day—listen to some of his compositions at johnhymas.com. He will be joined by our very own Denise for the daytime sessions and, for the evening dance, by Paul—fresh(?) from his morning accordion class at Cecil Sharp House.

The programme will constitute the launch event of Andrew's recently published collection of 17th & 18th century dance interpretations: Elephants Stairs. A long time in the coming, let's hope it was worth the wait!
