

HALSWAY MANOR is a special place. The House, with its barrel-roofed hall, oak panelling and plaster ceilings, dates back in part to the 15th century and shelters in 6 acres of grounds on the southern slope of the Quantock ridge, with stunning views over the Brendon Hills to Exmoor beyond. The Manor has a warm and friendly country house atmosphere. Dancing takes place in the Victorian long room and there is a library and a lounge with a bar which opens lunch and evening.

ACCOMMODATION is in the House and the adjacent Mews. The Mews bedrooms and some bedrooms in the House are ensuite. The rest have washbasins with adequate showers and toilets available. There are tea/coffee making facilities in all rooms.

THE WEEKEND starts with dinner on Thursday evening and finishes with tea on Sunday afternoon. There will be general dancing in the evenings, with more specialised sessions in the mornings and late afternoons and an opportunity for repeats on Sunday afternoon. Early afternoons on Friday and Saturday are free.

The cost of the weekend is £340 per person, £310 for non-ensuite (single occupancy £365/£340). Numbers are limited, so early booking is advised.
